12. “You” and/or “Your” means the Examinee and any agent or other third party acting on its behalf.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Unless otherwise indicated, the applicable time period for these requests is from January 1, 2010 through and including the date of your response.

2. These requests are continuing in nature, so as to require supplemental responses if you obtain or discover further, contradictory or different documents subsequent to the date of your production. Such supplemental responses, if any, shall be filed from time to time promptly upon the discovery by you of such supplemental documents. Each request is to be responded to separately and as completely as possible. The omission of any document or other item of information from the response shall be deemed a representation that such document or item is not known to the Examinee, its counsel, and/or other representatives or agents of the Examinee.

3. Produce not only those documents in your possession, custody or control, but also those documents in the possession, custody or control of any of your parents, affiliates, subsidiaries, officers, directors, shareholders, members, employees, servants, agents, representatives, attorneys, investigators and any person or entity now acting or who has ever acted by or on your behalf.

4. In responding to these document requests, you are required to obtain and furnish all information available to you and any of your employees, agents, representatives, or attorneys and to obtain and furnish all documents, written and/or electronic, that are in your possession or under your control, or in the possession or under the, control of any of your employees, agents, representatives, and/or attorneys.

5. If any privilege is asserted as to any document required to be produced hereby:

(a) identify each such document by stating (i) the type of document, (ii) its general subject matter, (iii) the date of the document, and (iv) the identity of each person who prepared, signed or participated in the preparation of the document, as well as each addressee and recipient;

(b) state the precise nature of the privileged claimed;

(c) state the basis for the privilege claimed relative to the specific information contained in the document; and

(d) state all facts contained within the document, deleting only opinions, theories, mental impressions and non-factual statements.

6. If any document was, but is no longer, in Your possession, custody or control, provide the following information:

(a) identify the document;

(b) state the disposition of the document and the date such disposition was made;

(c) identify the present custodian of the document and state his address or, if the document no longer exists, so state; and

(d) identify the person who made the decision regarding the disposition of the document.

7. All documents that exist in electronic format shall be produced in the format in which they are maintained, including all meta-data, unless the parties agree to an alternative means of production.

8. All Documents produced pursuant hereto are to be produced as they are kept in the usual course of business and shall be organized and labeled (without permanently marking the item produced) so as to correspond with the categories of each numbered request hereof.

9. Production of Electronically Stored Information (“ESI”) or any electronically stored data shall be in native format unless otherwise agreed and in the form more fully described on Exhibit 1 attached. In producing Documents consisting of electronically stored data in machine-readable form in response to any Request, provide such data in a form that does not require specialized or proprietary hardware or software.

10. It is requested that all ESI be produced as native files and single-page TIFF images with corresponding load files. Each image and native file shall be produced along with its corresponding metadata and extracted text.

11. In producing the documents called for herein, segregate the documents so as to identify the numbered requests to which such documents respond.

12. A request for a document shall include a request for all drafts thereof and all revisions and modifications thereto.

DOCUMENTS TO BE PRODUCED

1. All account statements, canceled checks, deposit tickets, electronic funds transfers (EFT) and/or wire transfers pertaining to any and all accounts held in the name of the Debtors, for the period of 2010 through the present, including, but not limited to the Bank Accounts.

EXHIBIT 1

Production of Electronically Stored Information (ESI)
FORM OF PRODUCTION

The Trustee requests that all ESI be produced as single- page Tagged Image File Format (“TIFF “ or “.tiff”) images with accompanying load files as reflected below:

ESI will be produced (printed and loaded) in 300DPI resolution or greater, Group IV Monochrome Tagged Image File Format (.TIFF or .tiff) files in single-page format, with native files and word searchable OCR/extracted text (Optical Character Recognized – i.e. searchable text). Load files will be provided in Summation (.DII) format including an “@Fulltext PAGE or Doc” token for loading of OCR/Extracted text files. The text file containing the OCR/Extracted Text shall be produced in single page format with the name corresponding to its associated image. It should also be in the same folder as the tiff images. Color pages should be produced as color JPEG images.

By agreement, native documents will not be produced for Redacted Documents, which will be produced in 300DPI Group IV Monochrome Tagged Image File Format (.TIFF or .tiff) files without native files or redacted information. Metadata for redacted files shall be produced. Metadata which discloses the content of redacted information may be withheld.

The specs are:

Single page tiff images

Single page text files (preferred), MultiPage text files, also known as “Document level”

Summation load file (.dii)

Metadata text file with the ^ | delimiters, do not use the , ‘ delimiters.

The files should be delivered with the following folder structure:

Images – contains the tiff and txt files, up to 50,000 items.

Data – contains the dii file and the metadata text file

Natives – contains the native files.

In general, Summation accepts images with the following set protocols:

(i) Load requirements for images only:

- Single page Group 4 Tiff files, resolution 300 dpi
- Must use Bates numbers to identify Tiff files names
- Summation Load File requirements:
 - @C ENDDOC# GT000003

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45(c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)
(made applicable in bankruptcy cases by Rule 9016, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure)

(c) Place of compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
- (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
 - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, or electronically stored information, or things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises, at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

- (i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.
- (ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt. The court for the district where compliance is required — and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court — may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

For Access to Subpoena Materials

Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(a) Committee Note (2013)

- Parties desiring access to information produced in response to this subpoena will need to follow up with the party serving the subpoena to obtain such access.
- The party serving the subpoena should make reasonable provisions for prompt access.
- The court for the district where compliance with the subpoena is required has authority to order notice of receipt of produced materials or access to them.
